Dear Colleague.

As representatives of The Irish Association of Plastic Surgeons at UEMS (Union of European Medical Specialities) we are delighted to invite you to the 14th European Course in Plastic Surgery, which will be held in the Davenport Hotel in Dublin, Ireland on the 8th to 10th November 2005.

This is the first Irish hosted European course and meeting and we expect up to 80 plastic surgeons coming from many of the European countries.

We have invited some distinguished Speakers to this meeting and expect some of the top European plastic surgeons to attend.

A full social programme is also planned. Further details will be available in the near future.

In the meantime if you require any further information or assistance, please do not hesitate to contact the Conference Secretariat, who will be delighted to be of assistance.

We very much look forward to welcoming you to this meeting in Dublin in November.

With kind regards,
Yours sincerely,

Patricia Eadie and Jack McCann
